Brands are relying on new product innovation to support their growth plans, and Amazon is becoming an increasingly important platform for launching products. In fact, over 1-in-4 brands are now launching their new products on Amazon first before expanding to other accounts.

Yet, over 1-in-3 don't have a great strategy or process for doing so!

65% of brands report having a standard strategy and process for launching products on Amazon and following it most or all of the time. These brands have a competitive edge worth sharpening, and the remaining 35% of brands have a low-hanging fruit opportunity for greater intentionality with their product launches.

Over 1-in-3 Brands Lack a Clear Strategy and Process for Amazon Product Launches
