All digital leaders face the same challenge: so much to do, so little time (and budget, and resources)!

With so many variables to manage – inventory, pricing, content, advertising, brand control, variations, brand stores, you name it! – one of the most important facets of the job is deciding where to spend (and not spend) time, budget, and resources to drive the greatest impact on the business.

We've compiled real-time intel from Walmart.com leaders via interviews and share groups to help you optimize your resources and set the right expectations with content, the 3P marketplace, and site merchandising.
